ST JAMES' C OF E JUNIOR SCHOOL
NEWSLETTER - 14th May 2021

Something to be proud of

This week Amirah has been able to use her problem solving skills to answer division questions. She remained resilient worked extremely hard and was consequently rewarded with success. Well done Amirah.

Bread making

During this half term, our year 5 classes have been learning about different types of bread, their origins and also researched bread recipes from around the world. Following on from this they made their own bread in various shapes. Working with the classes during their practical session was Mr Maxim from Kokura company.

Attendance and Punctuality

This week we received a letter from Anita Stewart, Director of Education, Inclusion and Achievement at London Borough of Newham. Congratulating the school on reaching attendance levels above 97% last week. We are very proud of all our pupils and would like to thank parents and carers for continued support.

The class with the highest attendance, last week, was Poppy class with 99.6%. The most punctual pupils, last week, were Sunflower and Iris classes.
Well done to everyone in those class

We are taking part in Royal Mail's Heroes Stamp design competition, to honour the heroes of the coronavirus pandemic. All entries must be submitted to the school office by Friday, 21st May 2021.

Times Tables Rockstars (TTRS)

Last week we took part in TTRS competition in collaboration with the NSPCC. Well done to Clover class who came top of the school and Mehraj in clover class who achieved the highest score, in the school.

The top 'Rockstars' were:

Ivy	Thashan and Ayesha
Sunflower	Nafiz and Sayerr
Iris	Taiwa and Mahira
