need to work together. The Government has launched a national campaign, aimed at parents and carers, on the importance of school attendance. Our goal is to create a nurturing and affirmative bond between parents and school, emphasising the pivotal role. Attendance has in enhancing their child's overall wellbeing. Our intention is to guide parents towards accessible online resources and information to empower them with valuable insight and guidance for them to make the right decision for their child. The campaign tagline is "moments matter, attendance counts".

MOMENTS MATTER, ATTENDANCE COUNTS.
